LB 371

SENATOR BEUTLER: Well, part (c) is basically technical. I think we can just basically ignore it.

PRESIDENT: Very well, is there objection to that suggestion of division of the question? So that we would consider.....

SENATOR LABEDZ: 18, 19 and 20.

PRESIDENT:18, 19 and 20 first, down through the number 19 and the remainder beginning with (b) in parenthesis as a second consideration. Section 15 of the proposed amendments, lines 18, 19 and 20 through the first two words of 20 be considered as one measure, one question, and then the remainder of that lineage to be considered secondly.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Beutler really makes this very difficult, especially with Senator Schmit gone. Okay, we are going to take then lines 18....

PRESIDENT: 18, 19 and 20.

SENATOR LABEDZ:18, 19 and 20.

PRESIDENT: Except that it is only in line 20 through 19, and then the remainder of line 20 and all the rest to be considered as a second question.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Okay, fine.

PRESIDENT: Very well, if there is no objection to that, I will so order that the question be divided that way, and we would now take up an explanation of the first part of that, Senator Labedz.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Fine. Thank you very much, Mr. President. On lines 1 and 2 it would allow a judge to issue a restraining order when minor children are in jeopardy from a noncustodial parent.

PRESIDENT: Did you say on line 22?

SENATOR LABEDZ: Lines 1 and 2.

PRESIDENT: Lines 1 and 2. Very well.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Of the committee amendments.

PRESIDENT: Very well.
